The Connecting Link

Between Martin Burke and the Cronin Murder

COMPLETELY ESTABLISHED.

Martin Burke arrives at Winthrop and identifies him as the man who hauled the furniture to the Cronin cottage. The Chicago grand jury rest on their verdict.

Winthrop, Mass., June 22.—The link connecting Martin Burke with the Cronin murder has been completely established yesterday evening when Martin Burke, the expressman, who hauled the furniture to the Cronin cottage, and who arrived here during the day, identified Burke as one of the prisoners and citizens who stood in a semi-circle in the jail yard. The identification was complete and beyond all doubt. Martin Burke walked before the grand jury and picked out his man at the first glance.

Chief Hubbard, of Chicago, has been notified to this effect. Burke stood the ordeal well, he never flinched and maintained the same stolid demeanor that has characterized his actions since his arrest.

Burke was arraigned before Judge Han under the extradition act during the morning. The case was postponed until Wednesday next, at the request of counsel for prosecution, who desired to have time to bring witnesses from Chicago. The evidence adduced before the Chicago grand jury will be submitted here.

Burke was questioned by considerably and looked better for it. In the police station. He took the proceedings as a matter of course, and did not appear to evince any interest therein. Chief McInnes says Burke's intellect is dull and that he is not capable of showing any feeling.

When Martin Burke passed down the hall, Burke's clothes, which his eyes were fixed on, were marked with a slip of paper and passed on, examining the faces of the other men. After completing the investigation, he returned to the station and held a whispered conversation. "I am satisfied, we will not want anybody else to identify the prisoner, but be positive of the matter."

Martin Burke was accompanied to Winthrop by a police officer, who is a superior detective. Chief McInnes says they now have clear sailing, and he believes there will no further difficulty in procuring sufficiently strong evidence to secure Burke's extradition.

Telegraphic dispatches are passing rapidly between Chief Hubbard, of Chicago, and the officers here.

The grand jury rest on the case.

Cincinnati, June 22.—Further investigation of the Cronin murder has been completed by the grand jury as a result of the accumulation of ordinary jail cases which require immediate attention in order that the prisoners might be brought to trial within the term prescribed by the statutes. The case will be taken up again next week.

Chief McInnes says they now have clear sailing, and he believes there will no further difficulty in procuring sufficiently strong evidence to secure Burke's extradition.

Telegraphic dispatches are passing rapidly between Chief Hubbard, of Chicago, and the officers here.

AMALGAMATED ASSOCIATION.

The Convention Re-Elects the Old Officers and Adjourns.

Pittsburg, June 22.—The fourteenth annual convention of Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers reached a final adjournment yesterday evening, after a session of seven days.

At yesterday evening's session, William Wehr was unanimously re-elected president; William Martin, re-elected secretary; and William Wehr, re-appointed assistant secretary.

There is but little doubt that the wage scale adopted by the convention and submitted to the manufacturers will be accepted by the latter without alteration.

The difference between the employees and managers of the Carnegie-Homestead mills remains unsettled, and will probably so remain until July 1, the end of the present scale year.

There is now no prospect of an amicable adjustment of the differences between the employees and their employers, and a strike is almost certain to occur at that time.

James Laughlin signed the seals of the Amalgamated Association yesterday for the American iron works. This is the first time to accept, but other signatures are expected.

THE JOHNS' TOWN DISASTER.

Various Events Which Took Place in the Devastated District.

Johnstown, Pa., June 22.—Yesterday the burgess and several of the citizens of the Pittsburgh sent word to Gen. Hastings that they were very much in need of food and clothing. He at once sent an abundance of both to the town and will continue to supply it and other necessities until assistance will no longer be needed.

One hundred portable houses are expected here hourly, and scores of carpenters will immediately go to work placing them on their former sites. The houses will be used in order to place the people to enable them to get on their feet.

The methods of erecting these houses is simply itself, and they can be put together with astonishing rapidity. The houses will be erected after the most approved sanitary principles, on sites recommended by the state board of health.

The erection of one hundred two-story frame business houses on the public square was begun yesterday. By the 1st of July a goodly number of these houses will be ready for their tenants.

As soon as these buildings are in shape for the purpose intended, a committee, appointed by the city council, will take charge of them and distribute them by lot among the business men.

Property owners in the city, real and personal, thus far report losses aggregating $2,000,000.

The bodies of twenty-seven persons were taken yesterday. In a cellar near the Presbyterian church a family of six persons was found. The husband and wife clung to each other, their little ones lying on either side of the parents.

All were too much decomposed to be identified. The bodies identified were those of Henry Peckham, Mary and Maggie Peckham, sisters of the proprietor of the Hubbert house, L. J. Tracy and Minnie F. Harris, daughter of the chief of police.

Daniel Stoner of Altoona, came to Johnstown yesterday and dropped dead while looking at the body of a relative taken from the ruins at the viaduct. He was 65 years old.

After a consultation between Gen. Hastings and Miss Clara Barton, the Red Cross society decided to transfer their headquarters now at Marion to a lot near Gen. Hastings' house.

The force of men at work has been reduced to 2,000, and it is thought the remainder will be more satisfactory. All the ring leaders of the strike have been paid off, and have left the town. No further trouble is anticipated.

Representative Rose telegraphed Speaker Hoar yesterday thanking the members of the legislature for their help in the proposed donation for relief, but he respectfully declined to receive any such aid, as he says he was not so badly injured that he could not help himself.

Four-Mile Boat Race.

New Lebanon, Conn., June 22.—The eight-oared, four-mile straightaway race between the Yale and University of Pennsylvania crews was rowed yesterday evening over the Thames river. The race was won by Yale by one and one-half lengths. Official time, twenty-three minutes and fifty seconds. Pennsylvania twenty-three minutes and fifty-four seconds.

Yale Hands Thrown out of Work.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 22.—Owing to the recent assignment of George Calder, Jr., owner of the Fulton cotton mills, this city, operations in the mills were indefinitely suspended last evening. Three hundred hands were employed in the mill.

Will Alexander was arrested near New Lebanon, Ind., charged with horse-stealing, and taken to Brazil, Ind.

Five persons, supposed to be emigrants, were murdered in Ferguson county, Mont.

The Internal Revenue

Receipts for the Past Eleven Months

WILL AGGREGATE $120,028,968.

This is About Six Million Dollars More Than the Corresponding Eleven Months of the Preceding Year—Other Dispatches From Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Internal revenue receipts for the eleven months of the current fiscal year, ended May 31, aggregated $120,028,968, or about $6,000,000 more than for the corresponding eleven months of the preceding year. The receipts so far point to a revenue of $150,000,000 for the current fiscal year, as against $114,000,000 last year.

The following figures show the receipts from different sources for the eleven months of the current year, and the increases over receipts from the same sources during the corresponding eleven months of the preceding year:

Spirits, receipts, $68,473,204; not increase, $1,250,000; fermented liquor, receipts, $21,908,018; not increase, $67,886; tobacco, receipts, $20,246,220; not increase, $1,122,488; oleomargarine, receipts, $853,654; not increase, $87,684. There was a decrease of $7,074 in the special tax on manufactures of oleomargarine.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The president has appointed the following collectors of internal revenue:

William Cassius Goodloe for the Seventh district of Kentucky; A. T. Wimberly for the district of Louisiana; and Henry M. Cooper for the district of Arkansas.

The president also appointed John H. Simons, of Portsmouth, O., to be United States marshal for the southern district of Ohio; George I. Cunningham, of South Carolina, for the district of South Carolina; and Orville T. Porter, of Oregon, for the district of Alaska.

United States attorneys—Walter Lyon, of Pennsylvania, for the western district of Pennsylvania; and William E. Craig of Virginia, for the western district of Virginia.

Honore Greeley Knowles, of Delaware, United States consul at Bordeaux; Frank Mason, of Ohio, consul general at Frankfurt.

Charles R. Trail, of New Orleans, consul at Marseilles; and William H. Dinwood, to be superintendent of the mint of the United States at San Francisco, Cal.

Peabody B. Ellis, to be assayer of the mint of the United States at Carson, Nevada.

Two Important Cases.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Two important cases will come up for hearing before the interstate commerce commission next week. The first is set for the 27th instant, and involves the question of cotton transportation rates. The New Orleans cotton exchange is complainant and several southern and southwestern railroads are defendants. The complaint is discrimination in rates against cotton carried in the cotton belt to New Orleans and in favor of cotton carried from New Orleans to eastern cities.

The second case, which will come up for hearing on the 27th, is that of the Independent Refiners' association of Titusville and Oil City, against several roads that carry oil to the sea board, and involves discrimination in rates against the refiners.

Two Lucky Young Men.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The first appointments to cavalry at military academy for the class of 1894 have been made. Western Forester Moore, of Cincinnati, O., and Michael Shattley, of Otego, Wis., are the lucky young men.

The President Goes to Cape May.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The president, accompanied by Postmaster General Wanamaker, left on the 2:45 p. m. train over the Pennsylvania railroad for Cape May, N. J.

SHOT BY A MOB.

A Negro Prisoner Taken From a Sheriff Near Ridgewater, South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 22.—A negro named Andy Caldwell, yesterday attempted to ravish Mrs. Beckham, a respectable woman, at her home near Ridgewater. A mob of negroes, however, intervened and shot the negro, but he failed to fire. The negro then took the gun from the girl and shot her in the leg. He then went to Ridgewater and created a disturbance in a store, when the proprietor shot at him and he ran away.

In the meantime it had been learned that the negro was an escaped convict. The sheriff finally captured him and placed him in charge of a guard from the state lunatic asylum who started for Columbia with him. When near Rockton, the party was surprised by a body of forty armed men, who took Caldwell into the woods and shot him to death.

Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes Paralyzed.

CLEVELAND, O., June 22.—A special states that Mrs. Lucy Hayes, wife of the ex-president, was yesterday afternoon stricken with paralysis. Her entire right side is affected, and at 9 o'clock she had not recovered consciousness. Gen. Hayes was in Columbus, Ind., but arrived home at 5 o'clock in the evening. The other members of the family have been telegraphed for.

FIRE WORKS BURNED.

A Number of Lives Sacrificed on a Result of a Boston Fire.

Boston, June 22.—A disastrous fire, accompanied by loss of life, occurred early yesterday evening in the fire works establishment of Hoyer Brothers, corner of Summer and Hawley streets. Three dead bodies have been taken from the ruins, and three persons are known to be fatally injured. It is feared that there may be more victims among the debris. The building was occupied on the ground floor by C. E. Browning, milliners, and on the three upper floors by Hoyer Brothers, dealers in fancy goods and fire works.

A salesman discovered the fire on the second floor shortly after 5 o'clock. The flames spread rapidly, cutting off the escape of several men in the upper stories, and in five minutes the entire building was in flames. The fire was caused by a defective fuse in one of the fireworks, which exploded and broke the neck of Charles F. Callahan, of 424 Chelsea street, East Boston, and Thomas Paine, packers, who were working on the fourth floor, jumped from a window in their fright. Paine was instantly killed, and Callahan's injuries will probably prove fatal. William Brunenthal, who was on the second floor, was doing good service in checking the flames, but lost his way while carrying water, and rolled down the stairs. He was injured so badly that it is feared that he cannot recover. A body taken from the burning building has been recognized as that of Samuel Cord, the chief packer of the firm. The body of a boy was also taken to the morgue, and has not yet been identified. This completes the casualties so far as known at present.

The fire employees from twenty to twenty-five died, and carried a loss of $100,000 worth of fire works, and $50,000 worth of fancy goods, which is well insured. A large portion of the stock is ruined. During the fire the discharge of fireworks sounded as if a battle was in progress. Occasionally a rocket would shoot up into the air, and the interior of the building was completely ruined, but the walls are left standing.

The employees were largely foreigners, and known to the firm by their first names only, and this fact may add to the difficulty of ascertaining whether or not there are any other bodies in the building. The cause of the fire is not known.

A later investigation shows five lives lost, two boys missing, and one man probably fatally injured. The dead are Samuel Cord, C. E. Callahan, Thomas Paine, and an unidentified man, one unidentified boy. Fatally injured, Charles Albert Gage, missing John E. Anderson and Charles Polley, both boys.

Hoyer Brothers' loss is about $50,000, and Browning's about $20,000.

AFFAIRS IN HAVTI.

Hippolyte Telegraphs Over Legation and the Legation Asked to Leave.

New York, June 22.—The following has been received by steamer Saginaw from Havti bearing date June 5: "Yesterday afternoon Gen. Hippolyte, provisional president of the republic, arrived at Cape Hayti with about 1,000 men. He was very well received by the populace. Before coming to the cape he visited the mountains in the districts of Valliere and Thau, occupied a fort, and received the homage of these mountains. The people sworn allegiance to the northern cause, and they are now among the escort of the president. Now not a single place in any of the three departments of the north is occupied by the enemy."

Wheat has been advanced 12 cents, with sales of 60,000,000 bushels here for the week. But this speculative movement seems to have been a result of the fact that wheat and flour equivalent to about 40,000,000 bushels in excess of a minimum stock will probably remain from the last crop July 1, to be added to a new supply, which now promises to exceed all requirements for the next year.

Corn is one-half and oats three-fourths cents higher, for no other reason than because wheat advances. Cotton has declined one-eighth, with sales of 400,000 bales in a week, which is more than double the entire stock at all ports. A long expected break in cotton futures, at prices of 60 and one-fourth cents with sales of 600,000 bales. But the price is still fifteen cents for December options, against nine and one-half cents a year ago, and operators wonder that the public does not buy. Pork, lard and hogs are a fraction lower, sugar unchanged for this week, and leather half a cent higher for some grades.

The general tendency of prices has been slightly upward, but the advance averages only one-eighth or 1 per cent. for the week.

The heavy shipments of gold this week are a surprise to many, and are attributed by some bankers to the needs of the bank of France and the large expenditures of Americans at the exposition. But the balance of foreign trade has for months been so heavily against this country that no such explanation of gold shipments is necessary. For June, sales of gold amounted to $1,000,000, and thus far, merchandise exports from New York are $1,000,000 higher than last year, with imports somewhat smaller, but even these changes would leave a heavy excess of imports over exports to be met by shipments of securities or gold. At present the tempo of speculation does not encourage the belief that foreign buyers will take a heavy amount of gold. On the contrary, demoralization of rail rates is likely to be followed by foreign sales. The stock market is a little lower, but with great speculative strength still shown in the stocks which have been controlled by powerful combinations.

The business outlook shows no improvement according to Dun & Company.

A Good Crop Prospect But Fears of a Scarcity of Money—The State of Trade Compared With Last Year—Heavy Shipments of Gold Abroad—The Failures of the Week.

New York, June 22.—Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: While business is rather more active, it cannot be said that the outlook has on the whole improved. There is a better feeling, with larger transportation of iron and wool, and crop prospects are more favorable. But the agreement of railway presidents has not prevented a renewal of strife, and the demonization of rates is spreading widely, and meanwhile the exports of gold to-day will exceed $4,400,000.

If the railway outlook continues to discourage foreign investors, and the banks begin the last half of the year with low reverses, gold going out, and large crops to be removed, the monetary prospect will not be quite encouraging. The present increase over last year in the volume of payments through clearing houses is large at New York, averaging 31 per cent. for two weeks of June; but so large at Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago, where speculation is active, but averages for the two weeks 13.3 per cent., and smaller, but yet considerable, at the thirty remaining towns, where the increase for two weeks averages 9.3 per cent.

The actual increase of 4 per cent. in volume of payment is fairly distributed, though at about a third of the cities business falls below last year's. At Milwaukee continued wet weather retards, and business is rather quiet at Kansas City, and outside of speculative operations and the iron trade, it is generally dull at Philadelphia, but marked improvement is noted at Pittsburgh, and in a less degree at Cleveland. The demand for money is rather active there, but generally very moderate, with no indications on the whole, precluding prospects in the northwest, so that great hopefulness tinged all commercial reports from that section, and the demonization of rail rates is commonly supposed to promise better returns to farmers with the difference in cost of transporting eastern products to western consumers is already considerable throughout the region north and west of Illinois. Lard and coal rates have also been reduced, and are near their minimum.

Bar prices for iron are reported at Pittsburgh, at Philadelphia, and to some extent here, the advance on many kinds of pig iron being about fifteen cents per ton. But northern No. 1 can still be bought here at $14.50 to $15, and southern No. 1 at $15.25 to $17 per ton. The market for new iron products are stronger and higher, but there is a feeling of doubt whether the improvement will hold after the orders have been placed which result from recent destruction of property by floods. In coal, recent hopes have not been realized. It is even stated that the Harding coal, long held in reserve, is being sold at a single cent below the advance, and sales below the schedule are reported at Philadelphia. Copper is unchanged.

Wool is rather stronger, 104 quotations averaging three-tenths of a cent higher, and manufacturers in some lines are more hopeful, but in many others the state of the dry goods market is still given as a good reason for buying no more than enough for immediate requirements.

"A DIRECT practical experiment in a laundry has proved to me that the 'IVORY,' tested against a certain well known brand of laundry soap, has the same amount of cleansing power and one and two-thirds the lasting capacity. That is, the Ivory Soap will do one and two-thirds times the work of the soap against which it was tested. I therefore consider the Ivory a very good laundry soap."

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'"; they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

—E. B. Darfee spent Friday in Columbus, looking up business matters.

—Mrs. Will Patton, of Columbus, is the guest of Mr. H. H. Hageman, on east South street.

—Miss M. G. Watkins is in Gallon, visiting a few days with Miss Laura Shumaker, of that city.

—C. E. Miller and wife, of St. Joseph, Mo., are the guests of John Stoll and wife, on east Center street.

—John Batram returned home from Wooster, Friday, and will remain in this city during the summer vacation.

—S. W. McQuest and sister, of Kirby, O., and Miss Lella Hunter, of Asota, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hunter.

—Gallon Sun-Review, Mrs. J. E. Kriener, of Marion, accompanied by her son Fred, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Esch.

—Er L. Graham and wife returned to this city today. They will remain until tonight, when they leave for Idaho Springs, their future home.

—Miss Millie Eversole stopped off and was the guest of friends in this city on her way to her home in Prospect, after an extended visit in the vicinity of Johnstown, Pa.

—Now is the time to leave your order for strawberries for canning. Special low prices by the bushel.

—On July 31 and 4th, the Chicago and Atlantic railway will sell excursion tickets at one full fare for the round trip. Tickets good returning up to and including July 5th, account of Fourth of July.

—Buyers Telegraph: James Jacoby, of Marion, special agent of the Union Central Life Insurance Company, has been in the city several days, and has appointed Thomas Smith local agent of the company in this place.

—Children's day exercises will be given at the Christian church on Sunday, both at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The decorations will be complete and programs are arranged to please all who come. Everybody welcome.

—On July 31 and 4th the N. Y., L. E. and W. railway will sell excursion tickets at one fare for the round trip, tickets good going only on day of sale and returning not later than July 5th, 1896, on account of the Fourth of July.

—Gallon Inquirer: It is probable that the public will notice a change in the equipment of the Bee Line soon. Nearly all of the Vanderbilt lines' coaches are yellow and the C., C. and St. L. will likely be of the same color.

—To those who desire to attend the races at Luna, O., the Chicago and Atlantic railway will sell excursion tickets on June 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th. Tickets good to return up to and including June 29th. Fare for the round trip $2.10.

—The Huber works are now running day and night forces in the engine and blacksmith shops, and expect with the increased capacity to build over fifty engines this month. Even that number will not enable them to meet all demands.

—In Marion county LaRue and Caledonia will celebrate the glorious Fourth, while Marionites have two picnics at home to attract their attention, the Catholic picnic at the fair grounds and the Prohibition celebration at Normal park. Upper Sandusky's big natural gas celebration will attract a good many Marionites, however.

—The Cleveland Press dashes a bucket of cold water at Marion in the following manner: "Marion has started an independent military company with 54 members and can't find a suitable name. If they follow the tracks of other Ohio independent companies in small towns they will exist about three years and then gradually die out with a lot of bad debts."

—One thing is sure—whatever Marion ladies have charge of, in that particular thing Marion takes a front rank. All of our neighboring cities have recently been having Queen of Fame and Trades' Carnival entertainments, which Marion enjoyed long, long ago, and now our neighbors are catching on to the "Deestrick Skule," which Marion laughed over fully three months ago.

—The new Huber shops are moving along with remarkable rapidity. The brick work on the large new foundry building is fast nearing completion, and the stone men and carpenters are pushing their work with great vigor. Over an hundred men are at work, and of course things go along rapidly. Mr. Huber says the work is nearly three weeks ahead of specified time, a fact that is rather unusual in erecting large buildings.

—Grant LaFever went to Upper Sandusky on Friday evening and returned with Miss Lattie Huntsman, who was believed to have eloped with James McWhorter. The young woman denies having intended such a thing as running off, but only went to visit, but the fact that she left to visit at the same time that McWhorter went to the same place made the charge of accompanying him very plausible. McWhorter left Upper Sandusky for Columbus.

—Considerable attention has been attracted to Charley Drew's show window by a coin which is displayed therein, it being a relic of Pompeii and said to be over two thousand years old. It is the property of J. C. Sanford, and was found by a friend of his among the ruins of Pompeii.

—We desire to call special attention to John F. Uhler's page ad. in this issue of the STAR. Read the same carefully and then go and see whether these things are so, and reap the benefit at the great slaughter sale of Clement Bros. and M. A. Turney's bankrupt stocks. This is a bona fide closing out sale.

—A discharged cook of Thompson's circus appeared before Squire Payne on Friday afternoon and secured an attachment for $5 against the proprietor of the show. It seems that some trouble arose at Gallon and that Thompson secured the arrest of the cook on a trivial charge, of which he was not guilty, and he was discharged by the mayor. The cook then requested Thompson to pay the debt, which he refused to do, and in a dispute about the matter Thompson, it is claimed, tried to shoot the cook, but as the pistol would not go off he struck him on the head with it, inflicting a severe cut. The show then came to this place, where the cook secured the amount of his attachment.

CITIZENS OF MARION COUNTY, ATTENTION!

We have something to say to you which will do you good and make
YOUR POCKET BOOKS LAUGH!

Some time ago we purchased the M. A. Turney stock of JEWELRY, WATCHES, CLOCKS, SILVERWARE, ETC., ETC.,

From the Sheriff of Marion County. About the same time we purchased from the Assignee the Clement Bros.' fine stock of Merchant Tailoring and Gents' Furnishing Goods!

Both stocks cost originally about $11,000, which cost us $5,500 cash. Now we propose to divide $5,500 and over with the citizens of Marion County by throwing the entire stock upon the market, at prices

WITHOUT REGARD TO THEIR ORIGINAL COST!

Clement Bros. carried the largest and finest line of goods in Marion, especially in the Merchant Tailoring department. Now we are making a Suit of Clothes to order for $15 and upwards, a pair of Trousers $4 and upwards. Mr. W. G. Winnek is our cutter. We guarantee a fit and first-class workmanship, and a saving of $5 to $10 on a Suit of Clothes and $1 to $3 on a pair of Trousers.

We have a large line of fine straw goods for men, boys and children, and an elegant line of light colored and black stiff and wool hats, silk handkerchiefs, gloves and mittens, hosiery, collars and cuffs, shirts, underwear, and everything found in a first-class

GENTS' FURNISHING AND MERCHANT TAILORING STOCK OF GOODS!

We have a fine stock of woollens, consisting of fine cloth, cassimeres, etc., for suitings, beavers, etc., for overcoats, and fine Ohio jeans, which we will sell by the yard at cost and less, rather than make them up into suits.

All we ask is for you to come and see us, examine our goods and prices, and if you cannot SAVE BIG MONEY ON EVERY ARTICLE we do not want you to buy from us. It is impossible to mention everything in our stock, but we want to quote you a few figures, viz:
